

Environmental Case Study

What's Happening to Frogs?

1. Where were the first frog abnormalities found? _____
2. Who found the frogs? _____
3. What year did they find the frogs? _____
4. How many frogs were caught? _____
5. How many frogs had too few or too many legs? _____
6. What percentage of the frogs or salamanders had abnormal or missing limbs, digits, or eyes? _____
7. List three things that may have caused the malformations?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
8. What is the leading cause of amphibian malformations? _____
9. List three factors that combine together as the probable cause of the malformations?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
10. Do scientists believe that malformations are probably responsible for the some of the decline in amphibian populations? _____

